

Positional Words

These fun sheets are designed to help teach young ones about direction.

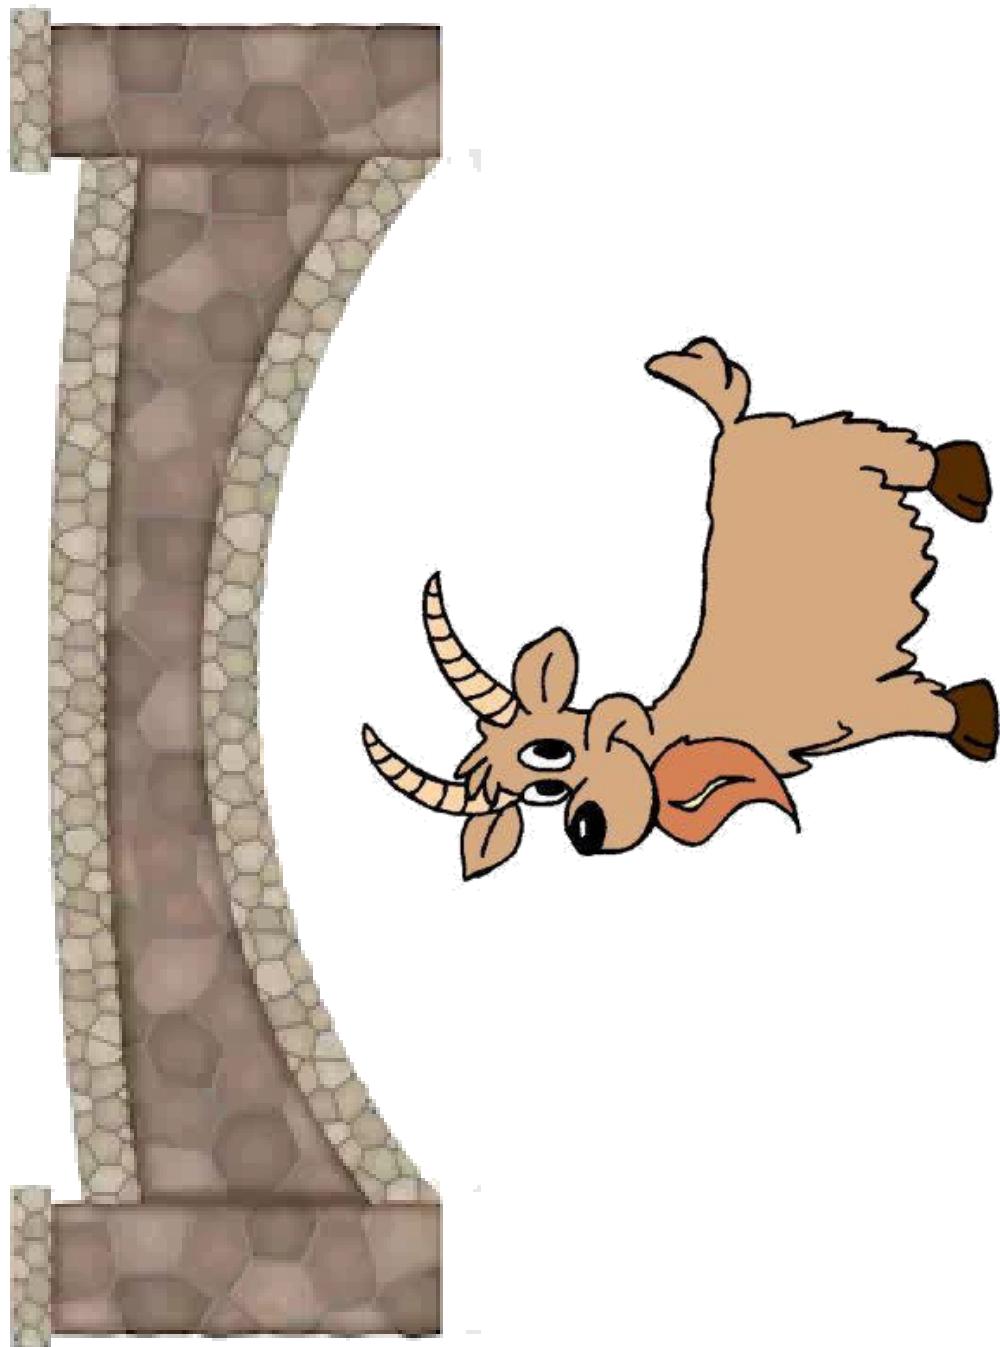

It's important to learn these words at an early age, as it enhances their ability to give and to follow direction.

Simply cut out the items on page two and have your child follow the directions given to them on page four.

You can laminate them to make them last longer.

Building Blocks

Building Blocks

Positional Words

upside down

front

behind

top over under beside near far

Directions

Turn the bridge upside down.

Put the goat in front of the bridge.

Move the goat behind the bridge.

Move the goat to the top of the bridge.

Walk the goat over the bridge.

Move the goat under the bridge.

Put the goat beside the bridge.

Move the goat near the bridge.

Move the goat far away from the bridge.